1. In August 1951, the school for supply services (hadtap iskola) was stationed in the Kiss Janos Barracks, formerly Ferenc Józef Infantry Barracks, on the southwest side of Uelőei Street in Budapest. About 600 officers and men, who wore bordeaux service color with epaulets with yellow braid and the letter T, attended this school. Some storerooms for infantry arms of the Hungarian Army's Central Ordnance Depot were located in the western section of the same barracks installation. (1)
